

UNIVERSITY OF TORONTO
THE 35TH LEVY-WASTENEYS
GRADUATE SYMPOSIUM

SEPTEMBER 20, 2019

BEYOND BORDERS: UNIFICATION &
DIVISION IN LANGUAGE AND LITERATURE

Invited speakers:

ARMIN SCHWEGLER
University of California, Irvine

OSWALDO ZAVALA
City University of New York

This symposium will be an interdisciplinary celebration of the far-reaching impact of Luso-Hispanic language and literature in areas including, but not limited to:

- general linguistics,
- comparative literature,
- art history,
- film studies,
- diaspora and transnational studies,
- anthropology,
- population genetics,
- pedagogy,
- philosophy,
- political science, etc.

This symposium welcomes reflections on the social, aesthetic and theoretical insurrections at play within the Luso-Hispanic world.

DATE:

SEPTEMBER 20, 2019

LOCATION:

Private Dining Room (PDR),
BURWASH HALL, VICTORIA COLLEGE

This symposium is possible thanks to the support of our generous sponsors:

African Studies, Caribbean Studies, Comparative Literature, Drama & Theatre, French, GSU Conference Grant, Jackman Humanities Institute, Latin American Studies, Levy Wasteneys Grant, Sociology, Spanish & Portuguese, and the Spanish and Portuguese Graduate Students Association.